the West Indies as planned in February and March. In a statement on Wednesday, the ICC confirmed that "after a review of the decisions made by the Government of India" it has "unanimously agreed" to grant a no-objection certificate to allow the Indian team to compete in the West Indies. "This has been a long process but one that has benefited from an enormous amount of cooperation from all involved," said David Richardson, the chairman of the ICC cricket committee, which recommended the approval. "I would like to praise the India Cricket Board (BCCI) for the immense amount of work that has gone into

I am happy with this screensaver. It is fast and FREE. There is also a Web version which I am not so happy about. It works nicely but you need an account to be able to view the Web site. I can not use Internet Explorer to view the webpage as it does not work. The web page does not show any information about this screensaver. It makes you disappointed when you pay a few cents to download something that doesn
